Incident Summary: Information was received that there were two dead bodies in a van on S. Harris Avenue. Patrol responded and found a 2005 White Dodge Caravan with two bodies inside. EMS #15 pronounced the victims at 1:22 pm and 1:23 pm. The van was transported to the Franklin County Coroner's office with the bodies inside. No positive identification was possible at this time.

I person of interest was detained near the van and was transported to Police Headquarters where detectives interviewed him and he confessed to killing the two persons that were discovered inside the van.

We hope to have the victims identified after the autopsy tomorrow.

Detective Michelle Henry is the primary investigating detective.

These are the 90th and 91st homicides of 2018.

*UPDATE: The victims have been positively identified as listed above.
